

Failed ankle fusion with deformity
Patient presented walking on the lateral border (outer part of foot) secondary to malaligned ankle fusion. A wedge of bone was removed which can be seen outlined in the middle x-ray. It was removed and the ankle alignment was corrected. A nail was placed to maintain alignment.

