

Infected high tibial osteotomy requiring removal of plate and bone graft with placement of antibiotic cement spacer. Once the infection was treated, the cement spacer was removed and bone graft from the patient's iliac crest (hip) was placed. Correction of the patient's deformity (varus, "knock kneed") was maintained with the external fixator.