

Double arthrodesis for severe flat foot

Patients with long standing deformity and who are above ideal body weight do well with realignment of the foot and fusion of the subtalar and talonavicular joints. A cotton osteotomy (medial cuneiform) was added to rebuild the arch.

