

This patient has a short femur resulting from a gunshot to the hip. An internal lengthening nail was placed to add 3cm of length and restore symmetry. He also required an ankle fusion for a severe contracture of the ankle causing him to walk on his tip toes, surgery to fix an ulna fracture that never healed, and hip surgery for a persistent infection. All of his surgeries were performed by myself.