

Patient with midfoot arthritis who failed conservative treatment (medication, shoe modification, shoe inserts). Treatment included realignment of the midfoot joints (foot had flattened and shifted) and fusion to maintain the proper alignment.

